

Find the form, find the shape

Use the finished Border Collie sketch in the bottom right hand corner as a guide to draw over the top of the outline below and create your own dog. It's simply a matter of filling in the details. Breaking something down into basic shapes is an excellent way to find the form and hence find the shape of your character.

